OFF THE TOP

"SUCCESS IS NOT A DESTINATION, IT IS A JOURNEY"

By Lenny Broberg
International Mr. Leather 1992

We all have personal mottos and ideas that influence and define our approach to life. I find this one especially appropriate given the times we live in. But I feel we cannot determine success by the singular achievement of a goal. There will always be tomorrow and with it new challenges.

In facing these challenges, we must meet them head on, strong and unified. We must use our diversity, as a strength as our enemies will surely use it to keep us divided. We must build coalitions, both within and outside our community.

Within the leather community when fighting for our rights, equality and mutual respect must be accorded to all involved. The roles that we choose in our
